Read the verses: Judges 2:16-23

- (1) How would you describe the mindset of the person who "does what is right in their own eyes?"
- (2) What would you say of the person's fate who does what is right in their own eyes versus doing what is right in God's eyes?
- (3) We all have times where we are selfish (read: sin) and we move away from God, becoming our own god, at least in the moment. At other times, we move toward God and live a life with Him as our God. If you will, describe both movements in your life in general (or more specifically if you're willing)
- (4) In what way does the parable of the prodigal son give you hope of returning to the Lord yourself?
- (5) How does 1 Corinthians 10:12-13 strengthen you in a moment of temptation to sin?
