Read the verses: Matthew 26:1-27:5

1. Is identifying with Judas hard for you? In what ways do you identify with his quest to force Jesus' hand?
2. How do you identify with Peter in this story? What specific instances in your life come to mind?
3. Is there anything you'd like to share that you have a hard time believing you could come back from? In other words, where do you need to trust in Jesus' restorative power in your life more?
4. Judas thought he was on God's team, but ended up being used to accomplish Satan's will, not God's. In what ways could you or the Church be similar to this in our world today?
5. How will this teaching of Judas, Peter, and the Lord's Supper change how you live your life moving forward?
