

Community Group Questions

Read the verses: 1 Corinthians 4:1-21

1. When Paul identifies the posture of the apostles as being that of servants and stewards, what people in your life do you think of who have modeled this well?
2. What is the cost of being humble, submitted, and teachable? What is the reward?
3. Do you have, or have you ever had, a spiritual parent that became what Paul was to the Corinthian church? What does/did that look like?
4. In what specific areas do you need humbling?
5. Who are you submitted to in your life? How?
6. What in the past year has demonstrated that you are teachable person?