1. Icebreaker: Share a time when you were part of a group project or team that accomplished something bigger than what you could have done on your own.
2. Do you think most people think of the community of the church and the practice of discipleship as going hand-in-hand? Why or why not?

7. What did you learn about how Brookside approaches discipleship as a local church? What can you do to benefit from this intentional approach? What can you do to contribute to this discipleship pathway?
8. Why is it important to make sure these three priorities of discipleship are connected to the larger goal of "becoming like Jesus"? Are there ways it can be dangerous to approach these priorities as "ends-in-themselves"?
