Questions for Study and Group Discussion

Before discussing these questions, read through Luke 2:1-38 as a group.*

1. Icebreaker: Imagine you were asked by a friend what the true significance of Christmas is. What would you say?
2. How would you summarize the point of the message that was taught in 1-2 sentences?
3. Why is this message important to hear?
4. What stands out to you or do you want to discuss, from the truth you read in God's Word?
5. What was your biggest take-away from the Bible passage and/or the message? Why?
6. What questions did the message create for you, that you want to bring up and talk more about?
7. Reflect on your response to Question #1. Is there any way(s) you'd add to your answer, based on what you've learned from the Bible?
8. Imagine your life in light of what you read and heard in the message:
 - What would your life look like, living in line with what you've learned from God's Word?
 - What are the biggest challenges you anticipate, as you think about living in line with what you've learned?
 - Is there a specific situation in your life right now, where truth from this passage shapes how you live, think or relate with others?
 - What is one way you can practically apply what you learned this week?
9. Close in prayer. How does this passage prompt you to pray? What else can your group be praying about for you?
