| We feel trapped behind these masks and six-foot markers. Having to maintain a close proximity to our shelter hasn't helped one bit. Sure, this is different, and meeting the challenge has occupied us, but now something is lacking. We are dealing with that which has been put upon us. But now we are becoming aware of the need to move beyond. Sure, lifting the restrictions would help. Forgive us for becoming bored. Help us to find something extraordinary for You that would satisfy our longing. | | |
| Words of Assurance | | Jane Barbour |
| In the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, you are forgiven, Glory be to God! Amen. | | |

Peace is not when everyone agrees.
It is when we can respect our differences

We extend our condolences to Mary McAnally and her family in the death of her father on Sunday, January 24, 2021.

Transportation Ministry Looking for Volunteers

One of the ways members of First UMC Fox Hill share our love for each other is to provide transportation for others who might need it.

Several members of the Transportation Committee can no longer participate, but people still need to keep doctor's appointments, pick up prescriptions, etc. Please consider volunteering to help this vital committee.

If you are willing to help with this valuable service, please email Betty Knaub at brknaub@cox.net or call her at 757-850-4013.
