It's Just...Dinner

Our first monthly Thursday night dinner will be July 25! Please pick up a postcard to share with others and to remind yourself. There will be outdoor activities for children of all ages beginning at 5:30pm, and dinner itself will be a "rolling" meal between 6-7pm. We have two goals: To make new or renew old friendships, and to connect with people across generations. If you are interested in helping, please consider being a "table host" who will escort people from the narthex into the fellowship hall and spend time with them getting to know them. Speak with Pastor Brian for more info. The meal is being cooked by Dave Rogers and clean up is by the Family Ministries team. If you are interested in helping for a future meal, please let Pastor Brian know that as well!

IT'S JUST...

Bring the whole family, young and old, and enjoy some fun outdoor activities, dinner, and maybe a conversation or two!!
