

:: Read Luke 15:11-22

:: Share a time when you disappointed someone in your life.

-How did they respond?

-How did you feel?

:: Explore and Discuss

Question: What about this story is unusual to you? Why?

Question: How do you feel about what the youngest son does?

Question: If you were the parent, how would you have welcomed him home?

:: Apply it to Your Life

Question: What do you think Jesus is trying to teach here?

Question: If we are the Body of Christ...how should we respond to "the Lost"?

:: Pray:

Loving Father, help us to understand how each of us have been lavished with your grace, Your unmerited favor, and may we respond to those around us and in this community with that same love the father poured out on the son.

:: Notes

