

:: Summary

The Nation of Israel had become trapped in a bad situation at the Red Sea. God intervened for His purpose and His Glory.

:: Share

Can you share a time when God stepped in and changed a bad situation into one that left those in it amazed?

:: Explore and Discuss

Question: What kinds of feelings go through someone who feels trapped like the Israelites?

Question: In a large group, how do those feelings manifest themselves?

:: Apply It to Your Life

Question: Moses replies to the frenzied Israelites with: Fear Not, Stand still and See what God will do. How do you think people today would take those words? How would you receive those words in that kind of situation?

Question: What must we do to be able to live into those kind of instructions in the future...to Stand still, fear not, and watch?

:: Pray

Lord, help us learn to wait on You...and You alone. You are our Deliverer and no one else. Help us to trust You are always with us and have only the best for us. For those who seek You...even if it means walking forward into a valley of water. Amen.

:: Notes

