

:: Summary

Read Genesis 1:1-5 Where we encounter the first Words of God.

:: Share

Last week we asked you to share a time when something challenged your faith in something. Today I would like you to share a time when you were propelled forward in your faith, by a word, a vision, or an action of another.

:: Explore and Discuss

Question: What might be a problem with never questioning your beliefs?

Question: What are some healthy habits to have for questioning your beliefs?

Question: Often people site the scientific inaccuracies of God's "how" in His word as a reason for not believing. How would/could you answer that concern?

:: Apply it to Your Life

Question: What should you do if you feel your belief/faith is on shaky ground?

Question: Who might you know who needs a friend to help them through a shaky time in their faith...and how do you sense God is calling you to respond?

:: Pray

Pray for God to grant you wisdom to understand His "Why" more fully in your life and to show you someone this week to speak to about God and share with your faith.

:: Notes

