

:: Exodus 5:22 "O Lord, why have you brought trouble upon this people? Is this why you sent me? Have you ever wondered something like this of God. "Why, Lord... why?" You are not alone, and one of the greatest of His servants asked this question. Moses did not understand all that God asked of Him and tried to do the will of God by his own power. That will never work...for him or for you and I.

:: Share a time when you tried to do something for God and failed.

:: Explore and Discuss

Read Exodus 6:6. Note the things God says "I will" to.

Question: Is there a difference between "bringing you out from under the yoke" and being freed?

Question: What is meant by "redemption?" How is that important for us as Christians?

Question: Of all the "I will" statements God makes in this text (verses 6-8), what means the most to you and why?

:: Apply it to Your Life

Question: How do we act differently as "redeemed" people?

Question: Who might God be highlighting for you to share the good news about redemption?

:: Pray

:: Notes

