

:: Summary

Exodus 15:1-18 The Song of the Israelites

After the walls of water collapsed upon the Egyptian army pursuing the nation of Israel, the people praised God by singing the first Song to God recorded in Scripture. It comes out very naturally and powerfully.

:: Share a time when you experienced a powerful expression of worship to God.

:: Explore and Discuss

Question: Name some examples of worship in the secular world.

Question: Which elements from the examples above are shared with our church worship? What should we share?

Question: If your experience with worship is less than you feel it should be, what might you do about it?

:: Apply it to Your Life

Question: Worship should be a 24/7 365 activity for the born again Christian. Where are some other places you could worship and how?

Question: What role does prayer play in worship?

:: Pray

Dear Lord, as we move forward in your will, may we continue to grow in our faith and understanding of Your salvation of our lives and may we pour out our gratitude in an abundance of ways each and every day of our mortal lives.

:: Notes

