2. God speaks through _____ (Psalm 19:7-14).

- Scripture is _____ (vv.7-9; 2 Timothy 3:14-17; 2 Peter 1:20-21).
- Scripture is given _____ (vv.7-9).
- Scripture is _____ (vv.7-9).
- Scripture is of _____ (v.10).
- Scripture is _____ (vv.7-14).

Conclusion:

1. Psalm 19 tells us that God speaks through nature (vv.1-6) and Scripture (vv.7-14). What can we learn about God from how he reveals himself in nature (See Psalm 19:1-6; Matthew 5:43-45; Acts 14:17; Romans 1:18-20)? What are the limits of what we can learn from general revelation (how God speaks through nature)? Why do we need special revelation (Scripture)?
2. What do the following words mean as they relate to the Bible?
 - A. Inspiration (2 Timothy 3:15-17; 2 Peter 1:20-21). How does our contemporary use of the word 'inspiration' differ from the Biblical use?
 - B. Inerrancy & Infallibility (Psalm 19:7; 119:86, 96, 138, 142-144, 151, 160). What is the difference between inerrant and infallible?
3. What happens when individuals and churches reject the inspiration, inerrancy, and infallibility of the Bible?
4. What does it mean for the Bible to be sufficient (Psalm 19:7-14; 2 Timothy 3:16-17; Hebrews 4:12). What difference does belief in the sufficiency of Scripture make? Time to be honest. Do you really believe the Bible is sufficient? If so, what should your life look like?
5. What would be a modern way of saying Psalm 19:10? Do you have anything that is more precious to you than the Word of God? What does it look like treasure the Word of God in your life? What are some indicators that a person does not really treasure the Word?
6. Do you have personal goals for Bible reading? Have you read through the entire Old Testament? How about the entire New Testament?
7. What might need to change in your life to make more time for the Word of God?
