What We Affirm

As a church plant of The Evangelical Covenant Church, we seek to form and nurture communities that are deeply committed to Jesus Christ and passionately engaged in Christ's mission in the world. The purpose of Covenant affirmations is to make clear the values and principles that have guided the Evangelical Covenant Church since its founding in 1885. For Covenant people, our essential beliefs are summed up in what we call Covenant Affirmations:

1. WE AFFIRM THE CENTRALITY OF THE WORD OF GOD.
2. WE AFFIRM THE NECESSITY OF THE NEW BIRTH.
3. WE AFFIRM A COMMITMENT TO THE WHOLE MISSION OF THE CHURCH.
4. WE AFFIRM THE CHURCH AS A FELLOWSHIP OF BELIEVERS.
5. WE AFFIRM A CONSCIOUS DEPENDENCE ON THE HOLY SPIRIT.
6. WE AFFIRM THE REALITY OF FREEDOM IN CHRIST.

Get Connected

We Want to Stay Connected with you... Text 'connect' to (321) 265-6556, click on the link that is sent back to you & fill out our digital Connection Card. You can also use the Connection Card to share prayer needs as well as get connected with RHFL staff. Did you know...for the 1st Connection Card we receive from every person or family, RHFL will donate $5 to our missionaries in Haiti, Evens & Karina Paul. <https://sai-haiti.org/>

At Rock Harbor we believe that everyone should get to play!

The best way to get connected is to be a part of what makes everything we do possible. Our Volunteers are people from the community just like you who get to bring the love of Jesus to our community.

Sitting in the choir loft one Sunday morning, Elvina Hall, inspired by a sermon, wrote in the flyleaf of her songbook the words to a now-famous hymn: "Jesus paid it all; all to Him I owe." Paul expressed much the same thing in this paragraph. After telling his readers they were complete in Christ, he then showed them how that was so. Against the backdrop of false teachers, some of whom insisted on performing rituals, Paul showed exactly what Jesus had done.

"But God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved)..."

— Ephesians 2:4-5

Read Colossians 2:9-23

1. How are you being aware of false ideas, ceremonies, or doctrines, that say it is more than only Jesus?
2. How do you proclaim the truth that Jesus paid it all and His forgiveness to others?
3. When you face spiritual battles, how do you keep in mind the victory already had through Christ?
4. Why are you looking in other directions for completion and satisfactions? How can you focus on Jesus more fully?
5. Has legalism, mysticism, or asceticism been an issue in your faith and relationship with God?

"Forgiveness is our greatest need and our Father's greatest gift to us."

- If you haven't been baptized, consider taking that step at our next baptism this Sunday or at the beach on Easter Sunday.
- Pray for one another as you face spiritual battles and offer thanksgiving to God for making you "more than conquerors."
- Find a verse, like Romans 8:27-29 to commit to memory to remind you of the victory in Christ.

Pray - Thank You, Father, for giving me the gift of grace and salvation through Jesus Christ! Thank You for the cross. I admit my need for your forgiveness, and I am blessed because You have wiped away my guilt. Help me to tell others about this gift and to boldly speak the message of the cross to others. Amen.

Jesus Christ is the most controversial person who has ever lived! There are as many opinions about Him as there are religions, cults, philosophies, and church denominations. Though Paul had never met the young Christians in the church of Colosse, he was deeply concerned for them, since attractive, man-made philosophies were making inroads. He wanted them to know the truth, to grow in their faith, and to be careful of any human ideas that diminish the place of Jesus Christ. Paul's concerns can be summed up with these simple directives: Believe! Behave! Beware! Belong!

"As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving." — Colossians 2:6-7

Read Colossians 2:1-10

1. What has kept you up the most at night over your life? What about the past two months?
2. Have you experienced the backwards slide when you are not making deliberate steps forward in your walk? What brought you back on track?
3. What steps are you taking now with Jesus to be strengthened in truth and good theology?
4. In what ways are you expressing thankfulness and gratitude to the Lord?

"What you believe about Jesus Christ is the most important thing about you."

- Follow Paul's examples and spend time praying for the church. Pray for fellow Christians to know truth, to grow, and belong.
- Take time to strengthen other believers in the faith, reminding them you are all on the same side — unified in Christ Jesus.
- Consider asking a friend to go deeper with you in getting rooted in Christ.

Jesus, You are all I need, and You are more than enough for every question and problem I face. You are God; all knowledge, all power, all things are Yours. Thank You for saving me, for calling me, and for making me whole. Please help me to be a beacon of truth to those around me. Help me to be aware of the things that stop our spiritual growth, turn from them, and choose instead to walk closer to You. Amen.
