What We Affirm

As a church plant of The Evangelical Covenant Church, we seek to form and nurture communities that are deeply committed to Jesus Christ and passionately engaged in Christ's mission in the world. The purpose of Covenant affirmations is to make clear the values and principles that have guided the Evangelical Covenant Church since its founding in 1885. For Covenant people, our essential beliefs are summed up in what we call Covenant Affirmations:

1. WE AFFIRM THE CENTRALITY OF THE WORD OF GOD.
2. WE AFFIRM THE NECESSITY OF THE NEW BIRTH.
3. WE AFFIRM A COMMITMENT TO THE WHOLE MISSION OF THE CHURCH.
4. WE AFFIRM THE CHURCH AS A FELLOWSHIP OF BELIEVERS.
5. WE AFFIRM A CONSCIOUS DEPENDENCE ON THE HOLY SPIRIT.
6. WE AFFIRM THE REALITY OF FREEDOM IN CHRIST.

Four-legged stools can meet the contours of an uneven floor much better than a three-legged one, as it handles the displacement of weight more efficiently. Life is much the same way. A bumpy world requires the stability provided by a family. When each family member is aligned with God's will, the weight of life's trials will be much easier to bear. The strength and solidity of a good and godly home is society's greatest asset. This weekend we considered four basic roles for a successful family unit.

Read Colossians 3:17- 4:6

Talk / Journal About It

1. The four roles: wife, husband, children, and parents function together as the ideal for a godly home. Not everyone has or had this structure as God designed. If that is you, how are you leaning in on the family of God?
2. How are you personally being a support and family to your fellow believers to exemplify the name of Jesus?
3. Considering your own role in the Godly Home, are there any areas you do well? Which areas have room for growth? How can you be a good steward of the calling God has given you in your family?
 - For married couples, consider ways you can help each other fulfill your roles as God has intended. Write a love letter, practice yielding, and commit again to be a unit as God intended.
 - For children, of all ages, dependent on parents, evaluate how well you are honoring and listening to the wisdom and instruction they have for you.
 - For parents, consider the ways you may be hindering your children's discipleship: hypocrisy, inconsistency, criticism, favoritism, and overcommitment. Ask forgiveness and start afresh by encouraging your children in the Lord.

Heavenly Father, thank You for being an example of perfect love to me. I am so glad I am Your child. Help me to have contentment in the role in which you have placed me in my own family. Give me the ability to honor Your name as I fill this role so that You will be represented well by my words, thoughts, and actions. Fill me with Your Holy Spirit, because I know that only with You is it possible to live my life in a way that pleases You. Amen.
