What We Affirm

As a church plant of The Evangelical Covenant Church, we seek to form and nurture communities that are deeply committed to Jesus Christ and passionately engaged in Christ's mission in the world. The purpose of Covenant affirmations is to make clear the values and principles that have guided the Evangelical Covenant Church since its founding in 1885. For Covenant people, our essential beliefs are summed up in what we call Covenant Affirmations:

1. WE AFFIRM THE CENTRALITY OF THE WORD OF GOD.
2. WE AFFIRM THE NECESSITY OF THE NEW BIRTH.
3. WE AFFIRM A COMMITMENT TO THE WHOLE MISSION OF THE CHURCH.
4. WE AFFIRM THE CHURCH AS A FELLOWSHIP OF BELIEVERS.
5. WE AFFIRM A CONSCIOUS DEPENDENCE ON THE HOLY SPIRIT.
6. WE AFFIRM THE REALITY OF FREEDOM IN CHRIST.

I'M IN: A Place for CHANGE

August 7th – Acts 2:40-47

Most people would say that church is a place for events, such as weddings, funerals, baptisms, baby dedications, or prayer meetings. But first and foremost, church (the occasion of God's people meeting together) should be a place for change. In fact, did you know that the word repent carries the meaning of changing one's mind? The last paragraph of Acts chapter 2 could be titled How the Church Changed Their City. Let's examine how this change was a five-fold work.

Read Acts 2:38-37

- Talk about church experiences you've had in the past. What made them good? What made them bad? What did you learn from those experiences? What ways could you make others' experiences good experiences?
- How do you experience the intersection of divine transformation and human proclamation?
- How do you experience God moving through your verbal witness toward others?
- What could you and/or your group do to invite neighbors and friends to church, exposing them to the gospel message?
- Which of the Five-Fold's of Spiritual Work do you believe impacts you the most?
 - Which area(s) would you like to grow more?

"Never underestimate the power of a simple invitation."
