What We Affirm

As a church plant of The Evangelical Covenant Church, we seek to form and nurture communities that are deeply committed to Jesus Christ and passionately engaged in Christ's mission in the world. The purpose of Covenant affirmations is to make clear the values and principles that have guided the Evangelical Covenant Church since its founding in 1885. For Covenant people, our essential beliefs are summed up in what we call Covenant Affirmations:

1. WE AFFIRM THE CENTRALITY OF THE WORD OF GOD.
2. WE AFFIRM THE NECESSITY OF THE NEW BIRTH.
3. WE AFFIRM A COMMITMENT TO THE WHOLE MISSION OF THE CHURCH.
4. WE AFFIRM THE CHURCH AS A FELLOWSHIP OF BELIEVERS.
5. WE AFFIRM A CONSCIOUS DEPENDENCE ON THE HOLY SPIRIT.
6. WE AFFIRM THE REALITY OF FREEDOM IN CHRIST.

Reconciled in Christ

One of the most important truths of the New Testament is that we have been reconciled to God. The gap that separates humans from their Creator has been closed by one person and one action. The results of that act are what brings God and His rebel creatures into a restored relationship. This message took us on a deeper dive into these magnificent realities and what they mean to us.

Read Colossians 1:19-23

Talk / Journal About It

1. In what ways have you tried on your own to be right with God by being good, religious, or sincere—and failed?
2. How does Jesus' death on the cross change your perspective on reconciliation to God?
3. How can you demonstrate daily in word and action your cooperation with God's work in your life? Are you serving Him with gratitude?
4. Are you, like Paul, pleading for others to be reconciled to God? How are you doing this?

"Real faith leads to real results and those real results are the gauge of real faith."

- Thinking back to your own conversion, share testimony of how God made the first move to reconcile you to Himself.
- Tell of the measurable growth you have seen in each other's Christian walk — with specific examples — to encourage one another to keep their faith going and growing.
- Spend time praying for others by name who you want to see reconciled to God.
- Serve together as a group, whether it's helping someone within the group who is in need, or working with community outreach. Take steps to be active for the Lord together.

Pray

God, I offer thanks to You because You have done the work to bring me into a right relationship with You. I ask that You help me keep on in my faith, so that it is apparent that I belong to the family of God. I pray that the people I interact with would see Jesus in me, so that they can also become friends and followers of You. Help me to live in a way that shows Jesus to them. Amen.
