Galatians 6:1-10

1 Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit should restore that person gently. But watch yourselves, or you also may be tempted. 2 Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. 3 If anyone thinks they are something when they are not, they deceive themselves. 4 Each one should test their own actions. Then they can take pride in themselves alone, without comparing themselves to someone else, 5 for each one should carry their own load. 6 Nevertheless, the one who receives instruction in the word should share all good things with their instructor. 7 Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. 8 Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. 9 Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. 10 Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

BIRTHDAY TAILGATE

Paul taught that believers should carry each other's burdens and help each other with personal struggles. He also encouraged believers to be their best and to be proud of who they are—they should not compare themselves with others

Read Galatians 6:1-10

Study Questions:

- What is the best approach to helping a fellow believer caught in sin?
- How can you share the burden of someone else?
- What responsibility do Christians have toward each other?
- What does it mean to carry your own load if you're also instructed to carry each other's burdens?

John 13:34 tells us Jesus made a new commandment, which is to love one another, just as he loves us.

- Do you know someone who needs to be loved? Who?
- Do you know someone who needs help? Who?

Apply to Your Life:

We can go through life and not be aware of the needs around us. Make yourself comfortable and take a few minutes to ask God to show you people close to you who may need your help. Then listen. Let God speak to you and show you who needs your help. Make it a point this week to reach out to those people in some way:

- Pray for them, and tell them you prayed for them.
- Invite them out with you and some friends.
- Invite them out to lunch or dinner—just the two of you.
- Invite them to your youth group or church if they do not already go.
- Ask how they're doing, and really listen.
