

Part 2
Our Resurrection
Message Notes

1 Corinthians 15:49-58

1. The _____ Requires Our Victory (vv. 50-53)
2. The _____ Predict Our Victory (vv. 54-55)
3. Our _____ Anticipate Our Victory (vv. 56-57)
4. Our _____ Is Motivated by Victory (v. 58)

Part 2
Our Resurrection
Message Notes

1 Corinthians 15:49-58

1. The _____ Requires Our Victory (vv. 50-53)
2. The _____ Predict Our Victory (vv. 54-55)
3. Our _____ Anticipate Our Victory (vv. 56-57)
4. Our _____ Is Motivated by Victory (v. 58)

MIRACLES

Part 2 Our Resurrection Journal / Group

Victory is a decidedly Christian term. We frequently celebrate that Jesus went to the cross and volunteered His life to be the payment for sin in order to justify us before God. But this is more than a simple concept; it points to the future when we will become winners over the last enemy of life—death itself.

Read 1 Corinthians 15:49-58

- Though we are not told directly in Scripture and can only speculate, what do you think our new bodies will be like in the new heaven and earth?
- Discuss/Journal the first time you encountered death. What were your thoughts? How does an unbeliever view death—what is its sting?
- Has it sunk in that death has no sting for you? What does this mean for your walk and witness?
- How are you being steadfast, immovable, and abounding in your life? Give some examples.

Connect Up:

- How do you show your appreciation to God for what He has done in and through the resurrection of Jesus?

Connect In:

- Knowing that you'll spend eternity with your fellow believers in resurrected bodies, how can you improve demonstrating love and service to them now?

Connect Out:

- You've probably attended a funeral for a person whose eternal state was unknown. Knowing that some people will live in eternity without God, how does the good news of the resurrection help us become better witnesses? What can we tell people about the Christian's experience of death?

MIRACLES

Part 2 Our Resurrection Journal / Group

Victory is a decidedly Christian term. We frequently celebrate that Jesus went to the cross and volunteered His life to be the payment for sin in order to justify us before God. But this is more than a simple concept; it points to the future when we will become winners over the last enemy of life—death itself.

Read 1 Corinthians 15:49-58

- Though we are not told directly in Scripture and can only speculate, what do you think our new bodies will be like in the new heaven and earth?
- Discuss/Journal the first time you encountered death. What were your thoughts? How does an unbeliever view death—what is its sting?
- Has it sunk in that death has no sting for you? What does this mean for your walk and witness?
- How are you being steadfast, immovable, and abounding in your life? Give some examples.

Connect Up:

- How do you show your appreciation to God for what He has done in and through the resurrection of Jesus?

Connect In:

- Knowing that you'll spend eternity with your fellow believers in resurrected bodies, how can you improve demonstrating love and service to them now?

Connect Out:

- You've probably attended a funeral for a person whose eternal state was unknown. Knowing that some people will live in eternity without God, how does the good news of the resurrection help us become better witnesses? What can we tell people about the Christian's experience of death?