MISSION PARTNER GUEST SPEAKERS

“WHAT HAPPENS AFTER WED. THE REVELATION STUDY ENDS?”

Cecil Beach will be wrapping up the study of Revelation on Wednesday, November 19th. This study has been very well received by church members and the community. We are so thankful for his leadership.

As the study wraps down, I have had several questions regarding what is next. Starting in December, we will have several of our mission partners share in the Fellowship Hall Bible Study time. This time slot will give greater opportunity for presentations, questions, and prayer.

On Jan. 7th, our Wednesday night programming will return. We will continue to offer Men/Women Bible Studies, our family programming, and I will start a new study on the book of Jude.

Jude is an interesting book that prepares the church for the changes that the church is and will continue to face as the world moves further and further away from the Lord. Believers are encouraged to defend the faith. Examples of Old Testament judgements are reviewed, and there are instructions for believers and assurance of God's power. It is a timely study for the church in our generation.

JESUS & THE HOLIDAYS: WEEK TWO

November 16, 2025 Job 1:4-5

sermon notes

“Let no evil dwell in your home.”

Cultivate a harmonious and healthy family atmosphere. (1:4)

Be concerned about your family’s spiritual well-being (and show it). (1:5)

Be proactive in intercession. (1:5)

Model spiritual vigilance and consistency. (1:5)

reflection

What four step process of repentance does Zophar put forth in Job 11:13-14?

Explain the “if-then” scenario of this text.

Birthday feasts were very common in this culture. See Genesis 40:20; Mark 14:6.

How does this contrast to Job’s feelings about “his own” birth day in Job 3:1-26?

Has there ever been a time where you have shared in Job’s “wish I was never born” depression?

How do these verses help understand “consecrating them”?

Genesis 35:2; Exodus 19:10-14; Colossians 3:5-14; Romans 12:1-2; 1 Peter 2:9-10

What principle(s) can we learn from these well known intercessory prayers?

Luke 23:34

Acts 7:60

Acts 12:12-13

Ephesians 1:15-23

What do these verses teach us about praying with vigilance?

Luke 11:9-13; Colossians 4:2-4; Romans 12:12

How can this message impact your family at Thanksgiving?
