

INFRASTRUCTURE: RESURRECTION POWER

Today we begin a new series called Infrastructure: Resurrection Power.

When we think about infrastructure, we usually think about the systems that make life possible—roads, bridges, water lines, and especially power. Electricity runs quietly behind the walls of our homes and businesses. We don't always see it, but everything depends on it. When the power is flowing, life works the way it should. When it isn't, everything changes.

In many ways, the Christian life works the same way. There is a power that runs beneath everything we do, everything we face, and everything we hope for. That power is the resurrection power of Jesus Christ.

Over the next several weeks, as we move toward Easter, we will explore how resurrection power shapes every part of life. We will look at how it transforms our past, strengthens our present, clarifies our purpose, and secures our future. Resurrection power isn't just something we celebrate once a year—it is the power God gives us for everyday living.

Inside your worship guide today you will find Easter invitation cards. I encourage you to take one and think about who God might be prompting you to invite. You can also pick up additional cards at the Welcome Desk or in the Chapel. Easter is a wonderful opportunity to invite someone to hear the good news of Jesus.

Infrastructure: Resurrection Power
March 15, 2026 1 Corinthians 15:9-11

Resurrection Power Shapes My Past.

It confronts my past. (vs 9)

I am the least; I am unworthy; Because...

It rewrites my identity. (vs 10)

But by the grace of God I am what I am.

It energized my life. (vs 10)

His grace toward me was not in vain.

It became my story. (vs 11)

So we preach and so you believed.

Reflection

What does Paul openly admit about his past?

Why is it important that Paul does not hide his past?

Acts 8:3; Acts 9:1-2; 1 Timothy 1:13

According to 1 John 1:8-9, what happens when we honestly confess our sin?

According to 2 Corinthians 5:17, what happens when someone is in Christ?

How did grace affect the way Paul lived?

At the end of verse 10, what does Paul clarify?

Philippians 2:13

What became the focus of Paul's life?

According to Acts 4:33, what message did the apostles preach with power?

What part of your past is hardest for you to believe God can redeem?

Summarize what resurrection power does with your past according to today's text, message, reflection.
