What will be different about this morning?

There are several things that will be different about the worship service this morning. I am praying that "change" is not a stumbling block for worship today. Therefore, I want you to be fully aware of the things that will be different in today's service. We also included an Order of Worship on the back of the Worship Guide.

We will enter worship today in silence to still our minds and hearts for worship.

We will have communion this morning. You should have received a communion cup when you entered the service.

We will have a shorter message today from our Senior Pastor. The message will also prepare us for a unique invitation.

The invitation today will be a call to prayer. You have been given Eight Prayers for our Church in your Worship Guide. This will be the focus of our prayer time. We will be encouraged to pray in groups, or by ourselves, or at the altar. Please don't feel pressured to pray in a group. Pray however you feel most comfortable.
