

Last Week's Memory Verses

Matthew 10:38-39

"And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. "He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it.

Remembering Passover

When Was the Passover Meal?

- John 13:1 states that the meal took place before the Passover.
- John 18:28 states that Jesus was crucified on the Passover.
- Synoptic Gospels present this as a Passover meal, featuring the lamb normally offered at the Temple for this purpose.

Luke 22:15-16

Then He said to them, "With [fervent] desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; "for I say to you, I will no longer eat of it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

A Sobering Announcement

Psalm 41:9

Even my own familiar friend in whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.

A New Covenant

Four Cups of Passover

- Kos Rishon— The First Cup (Cup of Sanctification / Kiddush)
- Kos Sheni — The Second Cup (Cup of Deliverance / Maggid)
- Kos Shlishi — The Third Cup (Cup of Redemption / Birkat Hamazon)
- Kos Revii — The Fourth Cup (Cup of Praise / Hallel)

1 Corinthians 11:26

For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.

“As you break bread and bow your heart before Him, what sort of sermon are you preaching? Often we have broken bread together around the Lord’s table, and then we have gone out to do just what those disciples did - we have denied Him.”

- Redpath

“What, then, do we mean when at the Supper we lift that sacred cup to our lips? Are we not saying by that significant act, Remember thy covenant? Are we not reminding Jesus that we are relying upon Him to do His part? Are we not pledging ourselves to Him as his own, bound to Him by indissoluble ties, and satisfied with his most blessed service?”

F. B. Meyer – (Guzik)

Revelation 19:7-9

"Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready." And to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. Then he said to me, "Write: 'Blessed [are] those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!' " And he said to me, "These are the true sayings of God."
