

1 CORINTHIANS

LEARNING TO LIVE BY THE POWER OF THE GOSPEL

"The Wisdom of God"

1 Corinthians 2:6-16

3 Realities about receiving and living in the wisdom of God:

1. Proclamation: The preaching of God's wisdom in the Gospel is received by those who trust in Christ, but it is not recognized by the world.

“At that time Jesus answered and said, “I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes.”

Matthew 11:25

3 Realities about receiving and living in the wisdom of God:

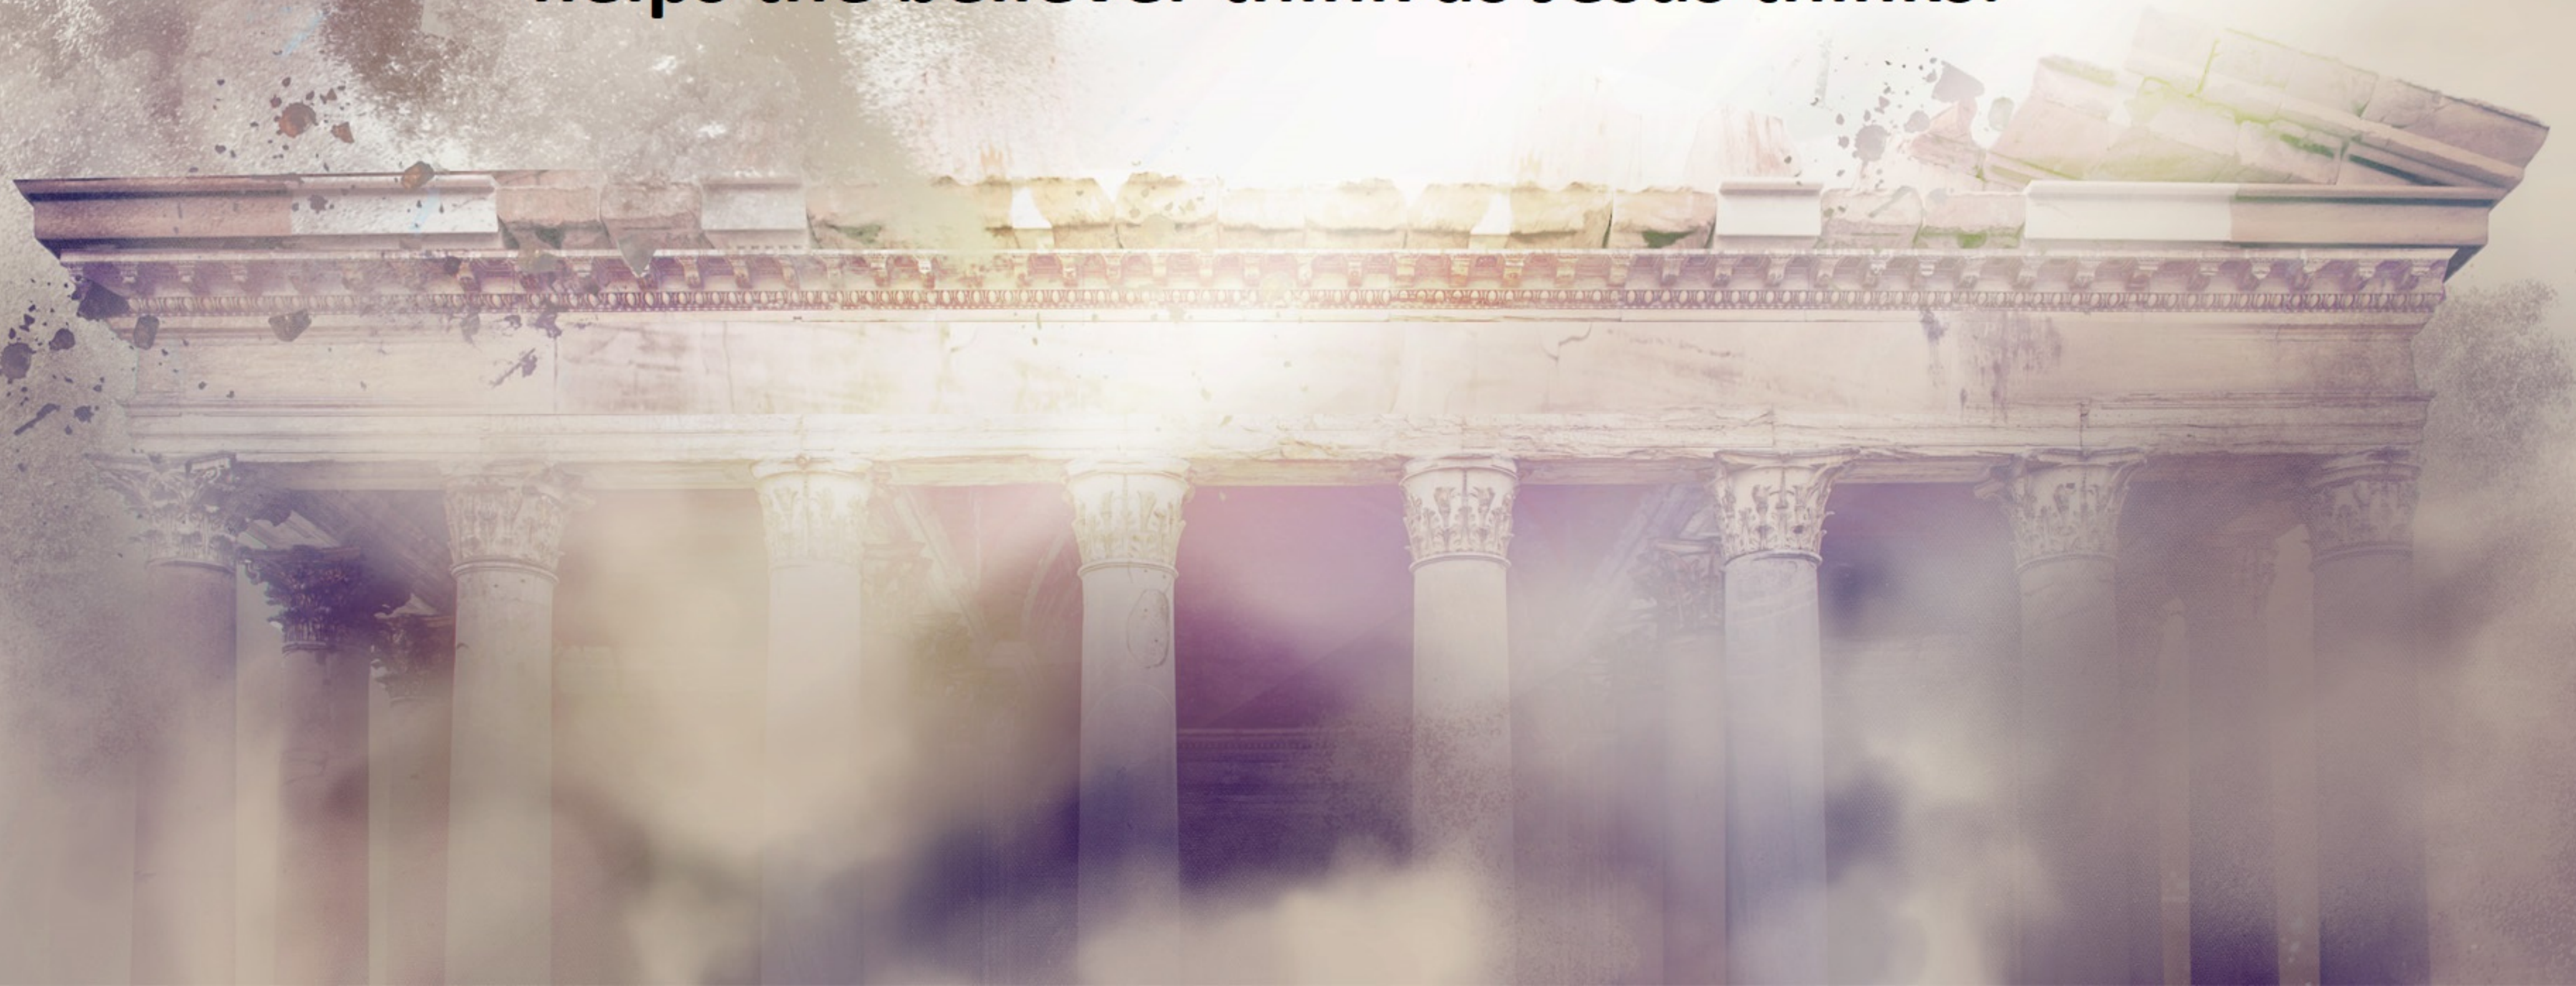

1. Proclamation: The preaching of God's wisdom in the Gospel is received by those who trust in Christ, but it is not recognized by the world.
2. Revelation: God's saving truth revealed to the apostles and written down in Scripture is known only by the Holy Spirit.

“Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things from Your law”

Psalm 119:18

The Spirit of God, through the Word, helps the believer think as Jesus thinks.

3 Realities about receiving and living in the wisdom of God:

1. Proclamation: The preaching of God's wisdom in the Gospel is received by those who trust in Christ, but it is not recognized by the world.
2. Revelation: God's saving truth revealed to the apostles and written down in Scripture is known only by the Holy Spirit.
3. Illumination: The spiritual things of God can only be discerned by those who are spiritually alive in Christ, but it is foolishness to the unbeliever.

Having the mind of Christ enables us to see life increasingly from God's perspective—meaning that we have a new capacity to think and talk and act more and more like Christ Himself
