

1 CORINTHIANS

LEARNING TO LIVE BY THE POWER OF THE GOSPEL

"Q & A about Christian Married and Singles"

1 Corinthians 7:25-40

5 Questions about Marriage and Singleness Answered:

1. To the Unmarried: Should I get married in view of the present distress?

ANSWER: Marriage is good in the sight of God, and singleness has its advantages in view of the present distress.

5 Questions about Marriage and Singleness Answered:

1. To the Unmarried: Should I get married in view of the present distress?
2. To Everyone: How should we live during this present distress?

ANSWER: Keep your focus on Christ and be careful against putting roots down too deep in a world that is passing away.

5 Questions about Marriage and Singleness Answered:

1. To the Unmarried: Should I get married in view of the present distress?
2. To Everyone: How should we live during this present distress?
3. To the Married: Does marriage effect your service to God?

ANSWER: Those who are married care about their spouse and family in addition to serving the Lord while the unmarried can serve and please God with less distraction.

5 Questions about Marriage and Singleness Answered:

1. To the Unmarried: Should I get married in view of the present distress?
2. To Everyone: How should we live during this present distress?
3. To the Married: Does marriage effect your service to God?
4. To the Father of a Daughter: Should I arrange a marriage for my daughter?

ANSWER: Choosing between married and single is not a choice between good and bad, but between better and best--depending on the circumstances.

5 Questions about Marriage and Singleness Answered:

1. To the Unmarried: Should I get married in view of the present distress?
2. To Everyone: How should we live during this present distress?
3. To the Married: Does marriage effect your service to God?
4. To the Father of a Daughter: Should I arrange a marriage for my daughter?
5. To Widows after the passing of their husbands: Can widows remarry?

ANSWER: Carefully consider what God might be calling you to do, either marriage or celibacy, when thinking about remarriage.