"Courageous Conviction"

What is the difference between a conviction and a preference according to the U.S. Supreme Court?

A preference is a very strong belief, held with great strength. You can give your entire life in a full-time way to the service of the preference. A preference is a strong belief, but a belief that you will change under the right circumstances. A conviction, however, is a belief that you will not change. Why? Because a man believes that his God requires it of him. A conviction is not something that you discover or have an affection for, it is something that you purpose in your heart.
