His army of 32,000 men was already overmatched by 135,000 Midianites.

Yet God said his army was too big, and He commanded Gideon to invite all who were afraid to go home. He was left with 10,000.

The army is still too big at 10,000 so after taking the army to the water the Lord said, "By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you"

The odds were: 1 Israeli soldier to 400 Midianites
