

JAMES

A FAITH THAT WORKS

"Bring Back the Erring One"

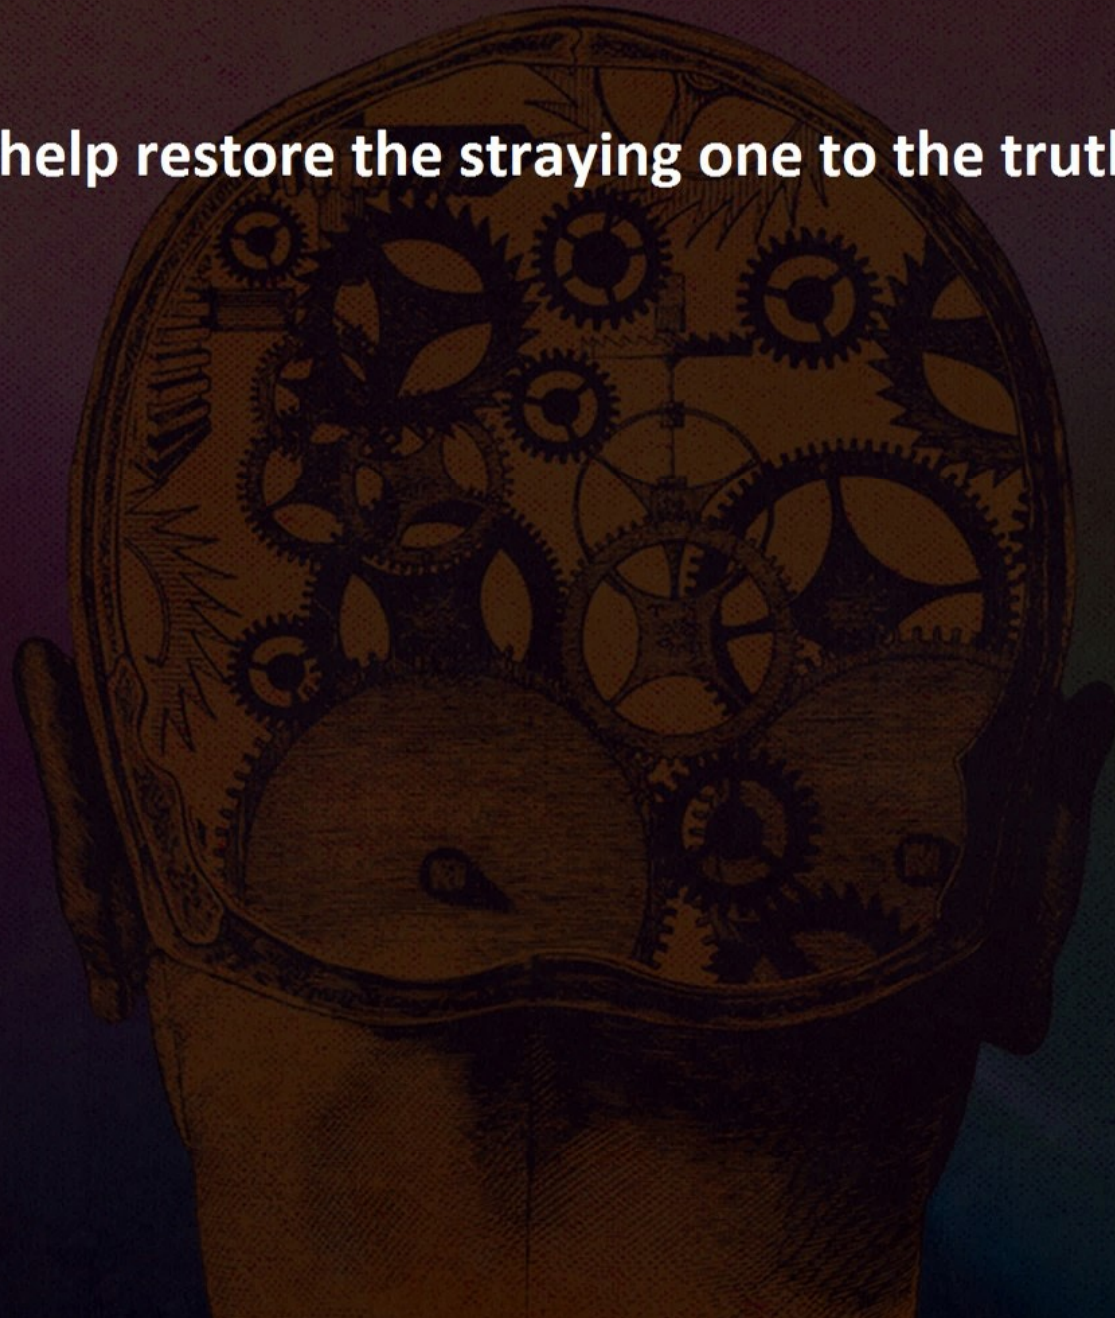

James 5:19-20

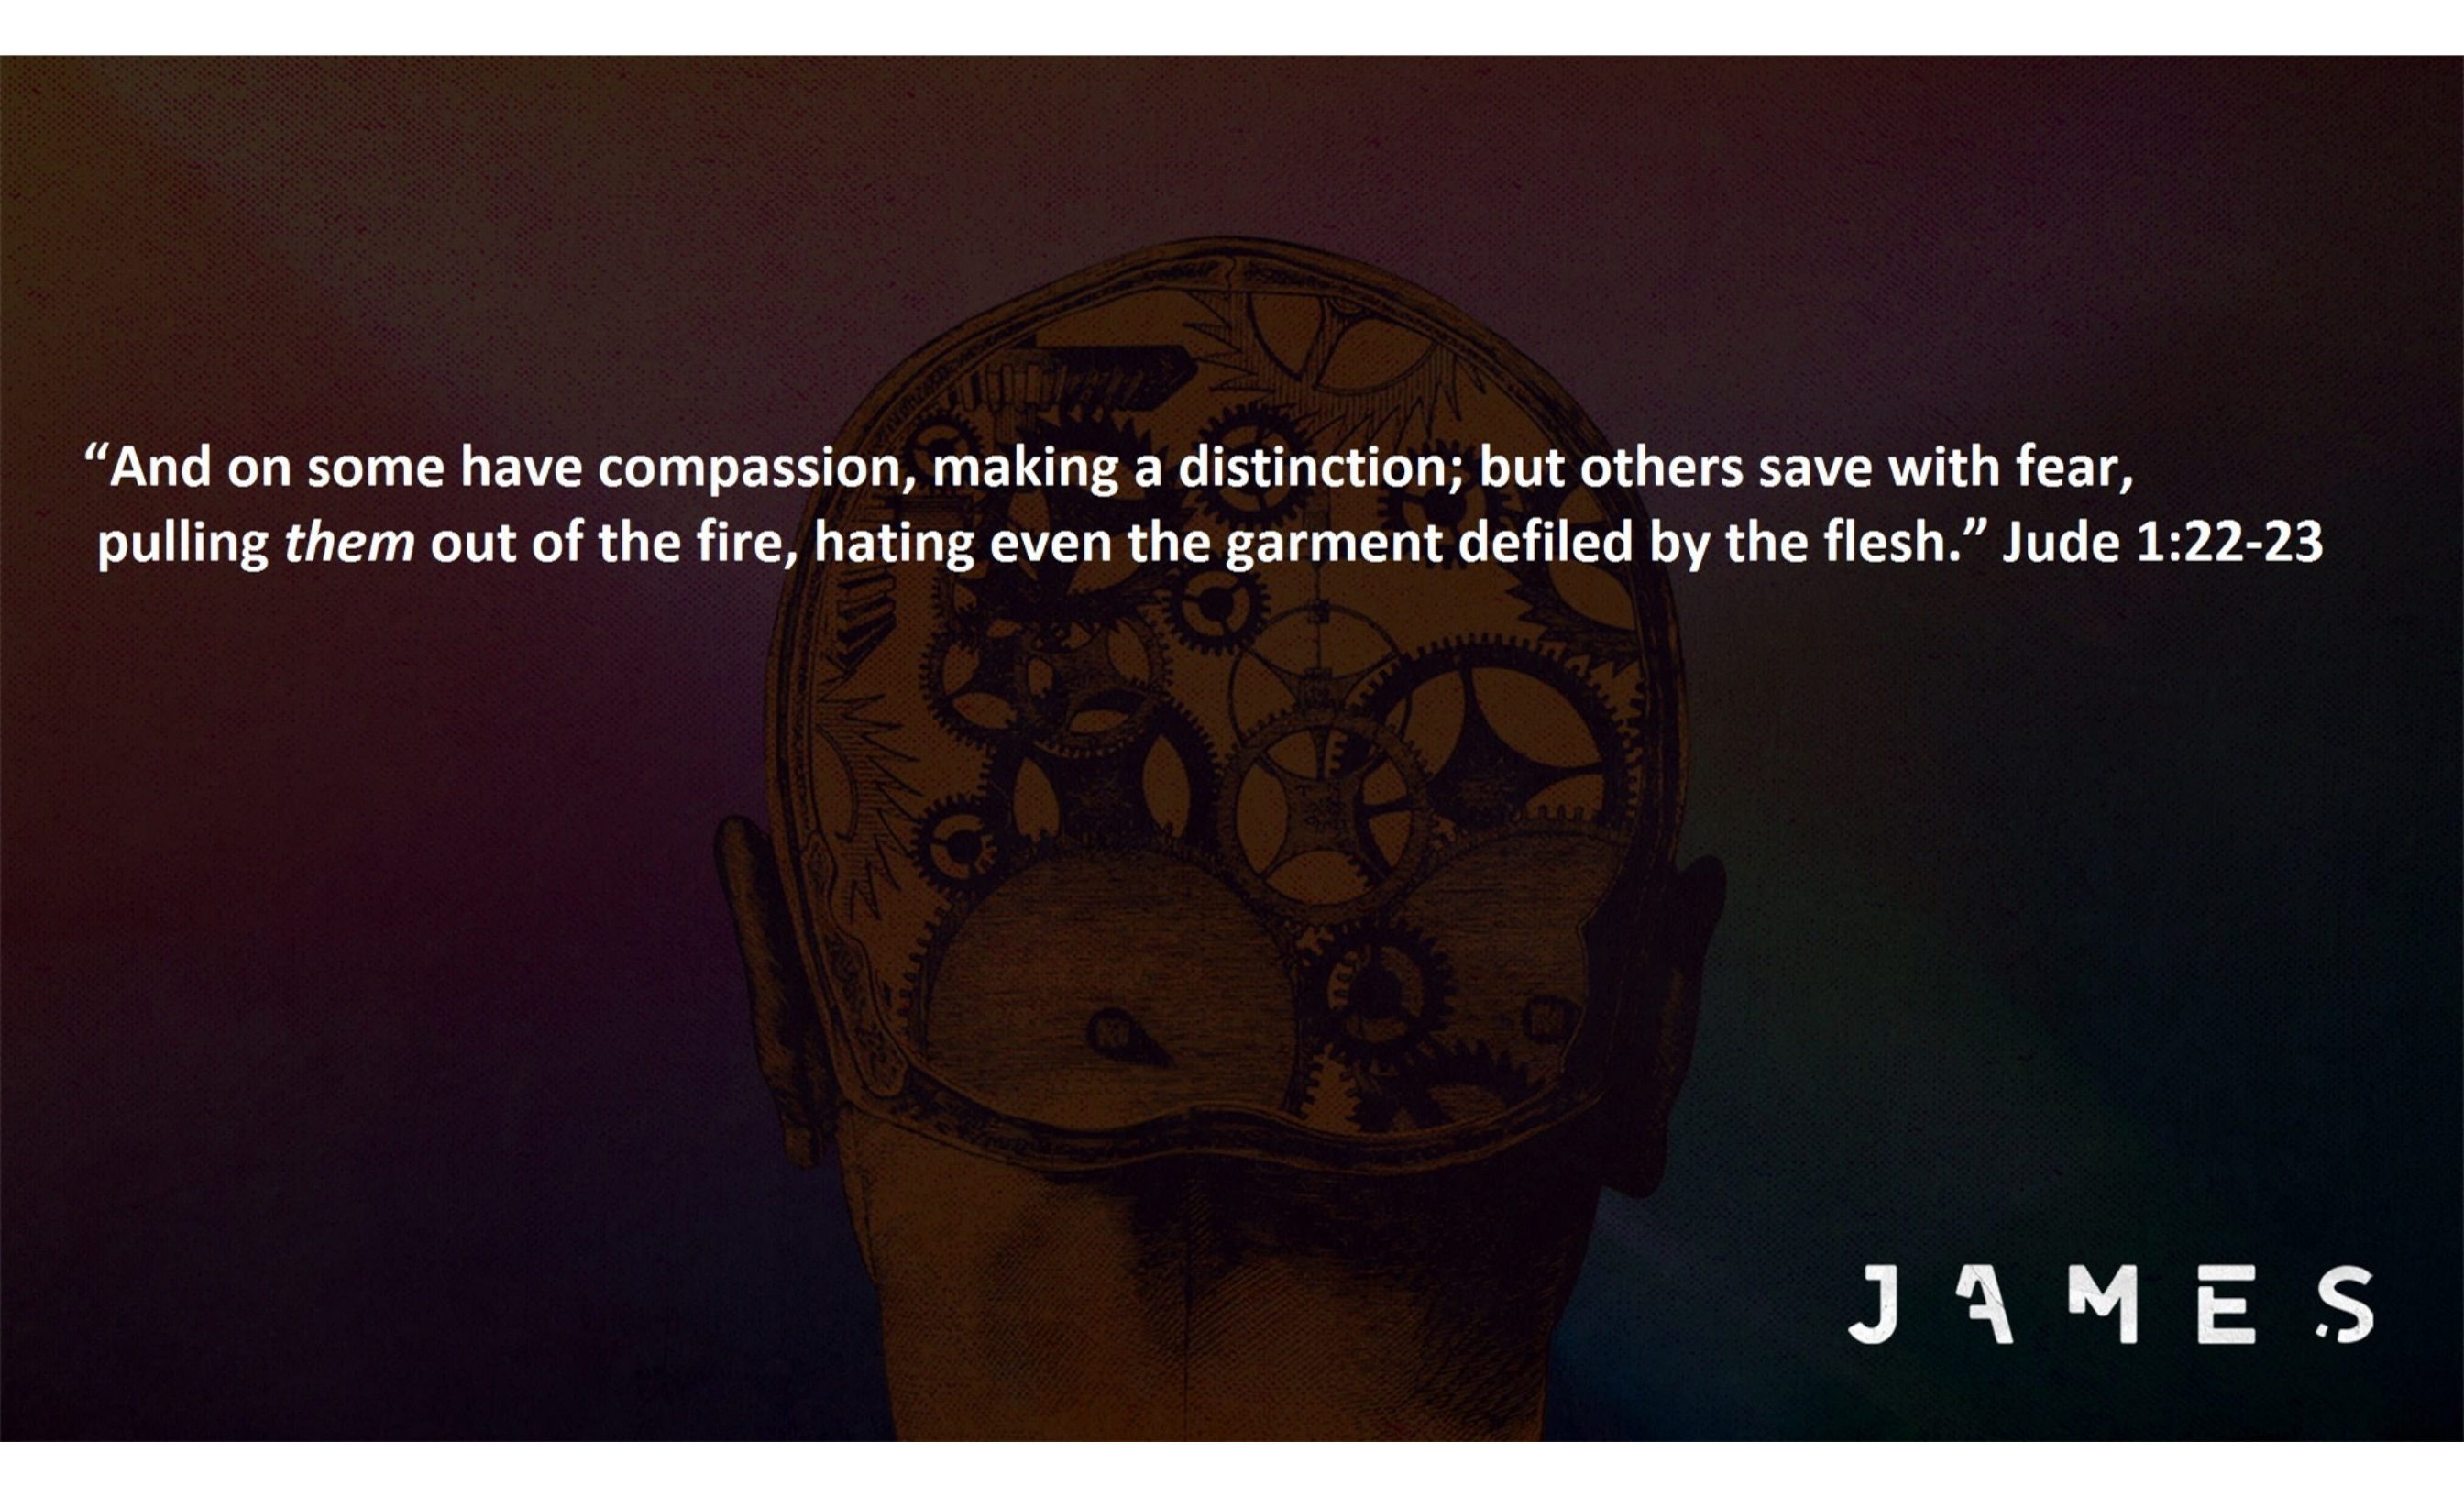

3 Signals for believers in helping to bring back the erring one

3 Signals for believers in helping to bring back the erring one

1. Believers are called to help restore the straying one to the truth of the Gospel

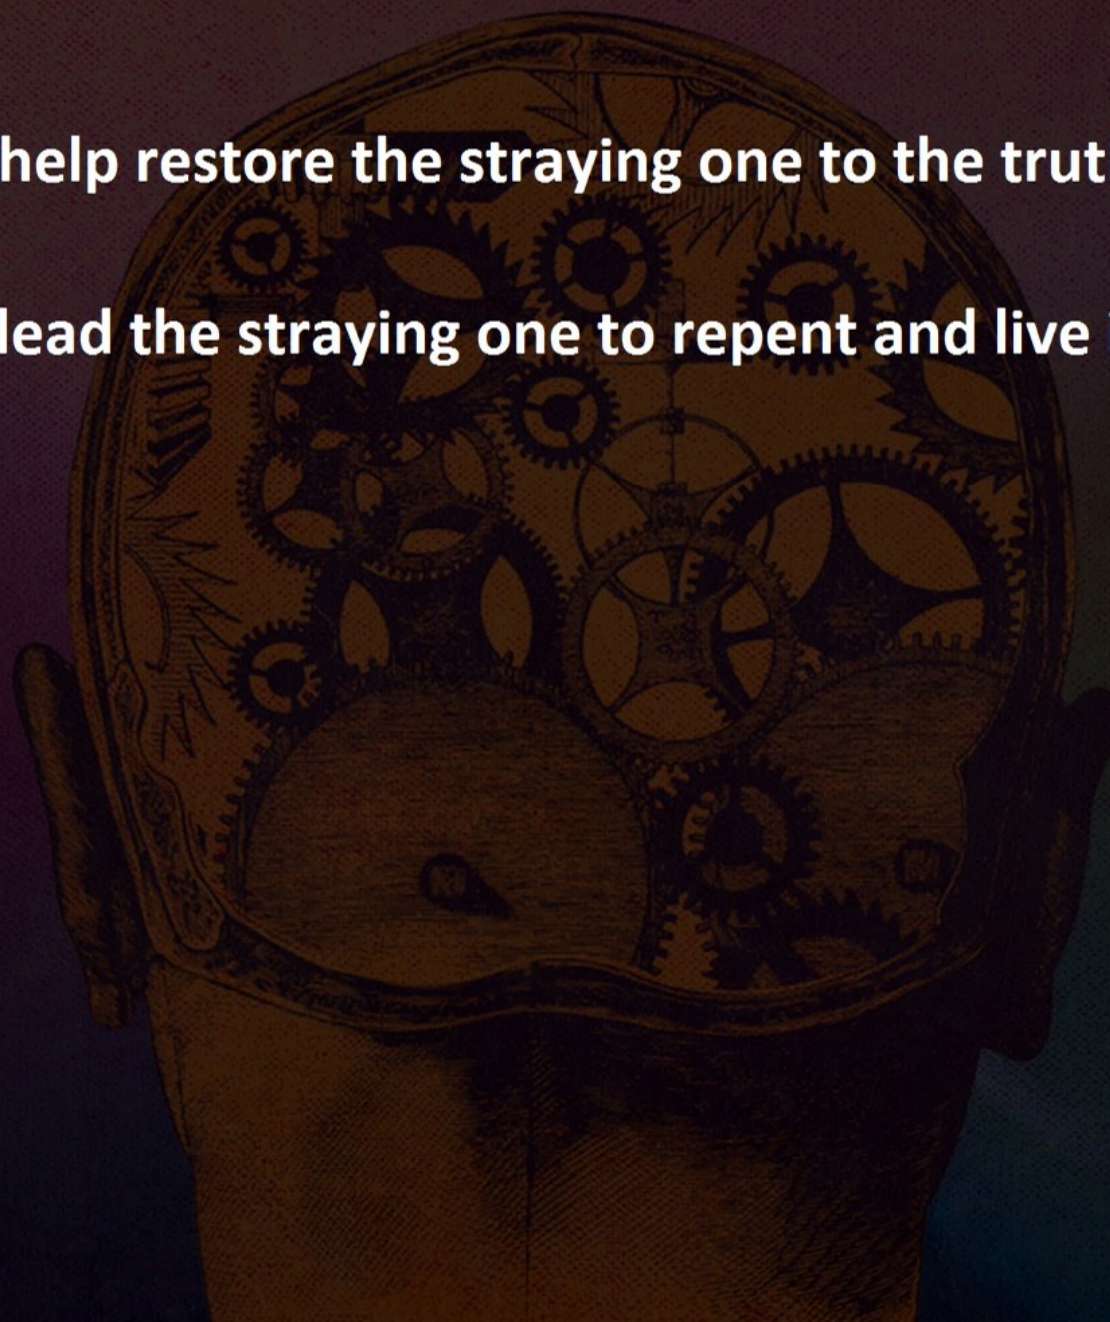

“And on some have compassion, making a distinction; but others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.” Jude 1:22-23

J A M E S

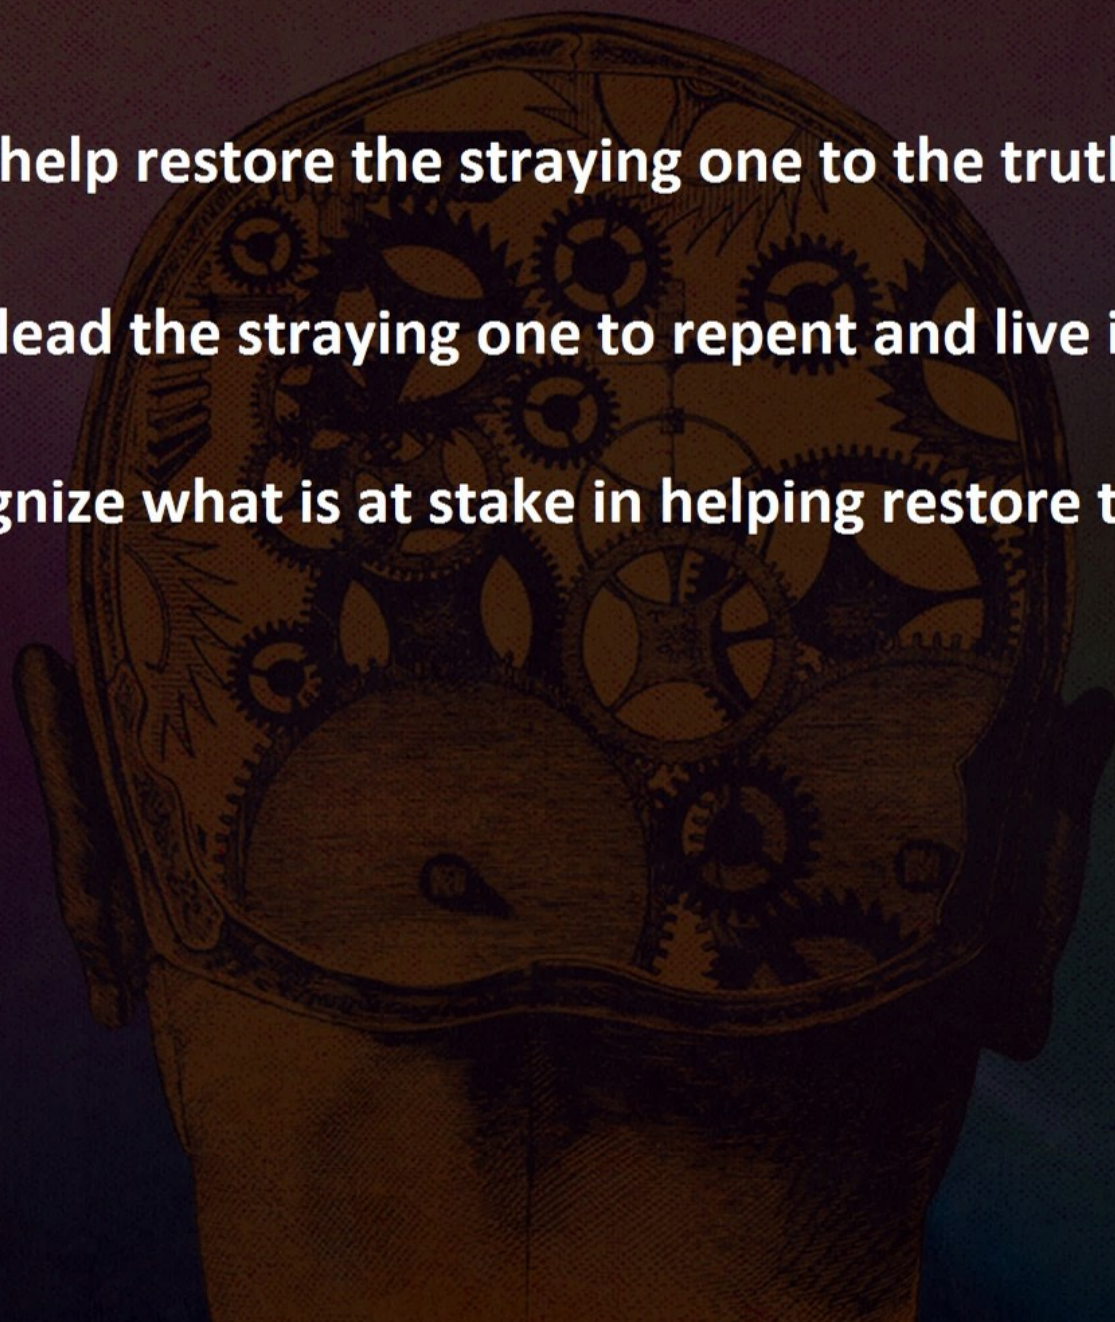

3 Signals for believers in helping to bring back the erring one

- 1. Believers are called to help restore the straying one to the truth of the Gospel
- 2. Believers are called to lead the straying one to repent and live in obedience to God's Word

3 Signals for believers in helping to bring back the erring one

- 1. Believers are called to help restore the straying one to the truth of the Gospel
- 2. Believers are called to lead the straying one to repent and live in obedience to God's Word
- 3. Believers need to recognize what is at stake in helping restore the straying one: their soul

Here are your specific instructions in going to someone who has gone astray:

- (1) Who should go? You!*
- (2) Get the facts.*
- (3) Check your own heart.*
- (4) Pray.*
- (5) Make sure that love for God and love for your brother are your motives for going.*
- (6) Go directly to the person.*
- (7) Think through in advance the proper approach and wording.*

J A M E S