Life Group Questions
RUF Sunday
Luke 14:1-24

1. If you have the time, read the passage together as a group outloud. Luke 14:1-24

2. What is something that stood out to you during the sermon or the service this past Sunday as you saw all the different college campus Pastors?

3. What is your perception of Christianity? Is it celebratory in nature, or is it the opposite (all about following rules and obeying commands)? Why is that your perception?

4. Jesus' parable describes how we experience the party in stages. How would you describe the stage you are in when it comes to Christianity and your faith journey?

5. Jesus describes some of the excuses people make to refuse to come into the party. What are things in your life that are preventing you from drawing closer to Jesus and the church?

6. Do you have a hard time viewing yourself as the spiritually poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind? Why is that?

7. The operating principle of this party is grace. Why is it so hard for us to accept grace? Why is it hard for us to extend grace?

8. How can you help compel people in your life to come into the party, to come into a relationship with Jesus?
