RESPONSE QUESTIONS

1. Why do you think it is important to look at this passage in the context of the whole chapter?
2. What is the significance of Jesus walking on the water during the storm?
3. What does Mark intend us to understand when refers to Jesus as intending to "walk by" the disciples in verse 48?
4. Jesus statement, "It is I" has a powerful connotation from Ex. 3:14 where God told Moses that He was "I Am". What is the significance of Jesus statement here? (See Jn. 8:58)
5. How does Jesus awareness of the disciples struggle in the storm and His presence with them comforts you in your difficulties? (See Ps. 23:4)
6. Do you ever think about Jesus interceding for you? How do you see this in the passage, and how does this encourage you? (See Heb. 7:25 and Jn. 17)
7. We see in the feeding of the multitudes and the healing of the multitudes that it is tempting to seek Jesus for what He can do for us (see Jn. 6:26). How can you make this same mistake in your life?
