Mid-Week Devotion (Take time this week to pray & respond to the following)

We live in a land of tremendous opportunity. We enjoy the benefits of freedom, clean water, abundant food, medical care, and myriad ways to learn, make a living, and be entertained. These examples merely scratch the surface of all the blessings that this place and time convey. Take none of this for granted, and let not a moment be wasted.

This is the most opportune era the Church has ever known. The resources and means we have at our disposal to obey and serve God are vast. The best thing we can do in response to His steadfast love and tremendous goodness is to offer Him thanks and use it all for His glory. Anything short of this is an offense and a waste.

The Lord of the Nations has sent us to be ambassadors of the Good News. No worldly force can stand in our way. Only our own ambivalence and disobedience can hinder the advance of the Gospel. We are blessed to be a blessing. Let's get busy with it and lay aside worry, fear, and anger in these days of opportunity."

Prayerfully express your thanks to God for giving you a life in this land of liberty and freedom. Ask the Lord to strengthen your faith and resolve. Invite Him to assert His authority and will in your life.
