“It’s one thing to know the truth. It’s another thing not to hurt anyone with it.”

- “Accept him whose faith is weak, without passing judgment on disputable matters.”
- “Welcome someone who is weak in faith, but not in order to have disputes on difficult points.”
- “Welcome with open arms fellow believers who don’t see things the way you do. And don’t jump all over them every time they do or say something you don’t agree with—even when it seems that they are strong on opinions but weak in the faith department.”
- “Accept other believers who are weak in faith, and don’t argue with them about what they think is right or wrong.”

“For the Kingdom of God is not a matter of what we eat or drink, but of living a life of goodness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.”
