

Identity Crisis

Building Our Identity on God’s Perspective (Part 1)

Don Calvert (Genesis 1-3) December 18, 2022

1st Perspective – Creation starts with God _____ _____ into what was formless and empty.

(Bible/Notes) _____

תהו (tōhû) בְהוּ (wābōhû): Wild wasteness, chaos, emptiness, void of _____, _____.

2nd Perspective – The more you let God speak His _____ into your life the more He will bring _____ and _____ into your emptiness and void.

(Bible/Notes) _____

3rd Perspective – Any excuse you use to justify busyness in place of _____ and _____, _____ emptiness and void back into your life.

(Bible/Notes) _____

4th Perspective – In the Garden of Eden, God calls Adam to use his _____ to _____ by giving him a responsibility, a command and a consequence.

(Bible/Notes) _____

5th Perspective – In the Garden of Eden, Adam and his wife are clothed in the _____ and _____ of God, and this is _____ than enough.

(Bible/Notes) _____

6th Perspective – God allows _____ to speak, tempting both Adam and his wife to _____ God’s _____-filled identity.

(Bible/Notes) _____

7th Perspective – There is a foundational difference between being cursed by God and being _____ a curse imposed by God; God didn’t _____ Adam and his wife, He sees them full of _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #1 – When you choose NOT to _____ in your families, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren will _____ the _____ for that identity.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #2 – Your identity does not begin with how _____ you are; it begins with how _____ and _____ our God is.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #3 – Your identity either starts with the _____ that Adam and Eve believed or it starts with God’s perspective; He created a good world and created _____ full of _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

