

עָשָׂה (‘ā·śā(h): He has done it! OR It is _____!

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #1 – Regardless of His circumstances Jesus never stopped speaking and revealing _____ message of _____, even on the cross.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #2 – In Jesus’ darkest hour...God did not _____ His Son; He was watching and listening to His Son _____ His _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #3 – In our darkest hour, God doesn’t _____ ... what will we be _____?

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #4 – Jesus went to the cross and _____ our _____ in _____!

τετέλεσται tetelestai: _____ in _____!

(Bible/Notes) _____

NEWBEGINNINGS
Reaching the world for Jesus, one person at a time.

Twisted Scripture

“My God, My God...”

Don Calvert

(Matthew 27:45-56)

November 16, 2025

(Bible/Notes) _____

Logical Biblical Consistency: The Bible _____ itself, Scripture _____ scripture.

Argument: God cannot stand in the presence of _____ because He is Holy, if He did He would become _____, and therefore become _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

1st Critical Observation – Theological problem, if Jesus is God how can _____ God?

(Bible/Notes) _____

κενόω kenóō: To make _____, to _____ oneself of position.

(Bible/Notes) _____

2nd Critical Observation – In all of scripture Jesus _____ _____ addressed His Father as “_____.”

(Bible/Notes) _____

3rd Critical Observation – Jesus is giving a Jewish _____,
which is a Hebrew word meaning “_____,” a direct quote from
_____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Rabbinic Remez: The practice of mentioning _____ or _____ from the Hebrew Scriptures that would “hint” at a passage.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Remez Assumption: The Jewish audience would know its broader meaning and context, and then import that _____ of the _____ passage into the current _____ moment.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Key in Understanding Remez: _____ portion of a scripture quoted is the same as the _____ of scripture.

(Bible/Notes) _____

How Psalms Often Start: With _____ out, describing the _____ and _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

How Psalms Often End: When everything turns toward God
_____!

(Bible/Notes) _____

Death Text: Jewish Rabbis would have this on their _____ at the point of _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____
