

Reckless Praying

Confession (Part 2)

Don Calvert

(Psalm 139:13-24)

July 16, 2023

Key #1: One of the most troublesome realities of David’s prayer/songs is his yearning for _____ and his _____ praying/singing for it as a part of _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Key #2: The reality of vengeance in David’s prayer/songs exposes what’s in _____; that _____ at times in his life has a yearning for _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

1st Position – Confession of _____. David remembers that he is the creative _____ of God’s handywork and God _____ formed him in His image.

(Bible/Notes) _____

קָנָה (Qǎn·nā) Kan-naw’ : Translated – _____.

Kan-naw’ (_____) in Psalm 139:13: God is saying, “Out of all of My creation, I created you for _____,” you are “My _____, your _____ is from Me.”

(Bible/Notes) _____

2nd Position – Confession of _____! By expressing his vengeance, David is _____ his rage and bitterness as he stands before God, _____ IT to God’s wisdom and care.

(Bible/Notes) _____

3rd Position – Confession of _____. David wasn’t searching for _____, he was searching to be _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #1 – Vengeance is _____ business, it’s _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #2 – Do not look at any other place in this world for your _____, what God knit within you is _____, you can _____ like it.

(Bible/Notes) _____
