

Your Making or God's Making? When God says, "Now!"

Don Calvert

(Genesis 41:1-40)

July 17, 2022

1st Key: _____ is a reality this side of heaven, but when we place IT into God's _____, our lives can be shaped for His _____ purposes.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Choice: Stop trusting God because of our circumstances or _____ trusting God and _____ our circumstances.

(Bible/Notes) _____

פָּעַד (pā'ăm) Troubled: To _____, to _____ an anvil.

Results #1 – God had given Joseph the opportunity to serve, because he _____, he grew in _____, and became a man of unmovable _____ integrity.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Results #2 – Joseph accepts that for such a time as this, God has called him to speak into the current _____, regardless of the _____ or the _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Results #3 – Joseph doesn't _____ himself he accepts that God will have His _____, in His _____, for His _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

2nd Key: As your _____ grow, your inward _____ character must grow in _____ to it.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Results #4 – When God says, "Now," it's when we feel the least _____; this is when He makes us _____ to carry out His _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #1 – When God prepares us for effective _____, He includes what we would rather _____...a time of _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #2 – As God makes us wait, it's NOT a punishment; He is showing us we are NOT _____ to His plans... this makes us _____ usable _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

