“In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to him in a vision, “Ananias!” “Yes, Lord,” he answered.

Acts 9:10-19

A painting depicting a man with a long white beard and a green robe, likely Ananias, being touched by a man in a red robe. The scene is set in a dark, dramatic environment.

12

“The Lord told him, “Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street & ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying. In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight.”

13

“Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing his hands on Saul, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord—Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here—has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

“Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, &

he could see again.

He got up &

was baptized, & after taking some food, he regained his strength.”

Acts 9:10-19
