

Woken Us as Your Children

Jesus, we tell of what You've done
Your mighty works, Your splendor
Jesus, our risen Savior, breathes
Everlasting life to our souls

You've woken us as Your children
With a love so beautiful and pure
With Your beauty now upon us
We long to be like You, Lord

Jesus, we tell of what You've done
Your mighty works, Your splendor
Jesus, our risen Savior, breathes
Everlasting life to our souls

You've woken us as Your children
With a love so beautiful and pure
With Your beauty now upon us
We long to be like You, Lord

Created in Your image to love
So, Father, You gave Your only Son
To set us free from the enemy
To breathe Your life where death had made its claim
You breathe Your life where our sins had left us in the grave
You restore my soul, Lord

And You've woken us as Your children
With a love so beautiful and pure
With Your beauty now upon us
We long to be like You, Lord

Yes, You've woken us as Your children
With a love so beautiful and pure
With Your beauty now upon us
We long to be like You, Lord

We love You; we love you
Draw us near
So, we can be in Your peace
We love You; we love you
Draw us near

So, we can be in Your peace

You've woken us as Your children
With a love so beautiful and pure
With Your beauty now upon us
We long to be like You, Lord

Yes, You've woken us as Your children
With a love so beautiful and pure
With Your beauty now upon us
We long to be like You, Lord

You've woken us as Your children
With a love so beautiful and pure
With Your beauty now upon us
We long to be like You, Lord

© Josephine Mary Schmidt