

Community Group Questions:

ICEBREAKER: If you could give a piece of advice to your younger self, what would it be?

1. Read Point number one from the sermon.
Why would God set a specific order for men and women? This is hot button topic for many people today. How do we follow this and still show we value everyone equally?
2. Define Boldness and courage. What do these two words have in common?
3. What does having a bold faith look like?
What is keeping you from living in this manner?
4. Read 1 Cor. 12:12-30 and then read point number three from the message. Look up the definition of the word fellowship. How can we tell when our fellowship is healthy? What can cause healthy biblical fellowship to go bad?
5. How can we protect and maintain healthy fellowship among believers?

This week's sermon

THE FELLOWSHIP OF THE KING

Mark 15:39 to 16:8

1. In Jesus, women are not only treated as equal in value to the men, they are necessary for the ongoing ministry of Jesus.
2. Boldness and courage are some of the marks of men who have faith in Christ.
3. Jesus forms a fellowship by being the object of love and worship for many.
