

HARVEST CHURCH

Notes:

This Week's Sermon:

Two Old Jews and a Baby

Luke 1:1-25

A FEW OBSERVATIONS ABOUT THE STORY AND MAIN
FOCUS OF THE TEXT:

1. Luke is a contemporary who is working with original sources for his material.
2. God required a godly couple to live most of their lives with an unanswered prayer.
3. God expects His people to trust Him when He speaks, and He responds when they do not.

Personal Reflection questions:

In what ways, like John, do you point the way to Christ?
What is your biggest challenge in being a "forerunner?"

What are some practical things you can do in your life to start defining yourself as God sees you as opposed to the world?
