

This Week's Sermon The First Responder

1. America was born out of an idea that came from the teachings of Jesus. That idea is this:
Every human has equal value before God.
2. Jesus is the primary first responder. He is the One who gives value to all, not by lip service, but by sacrifice and action.

Community Group Questions:

Ice breaker: What was the most impactful thing you learned from the Psalm 119 series this summer? How have you applied what you learned to your daily life?

Read the first MAP point. Does equality before God lend itself to the idea of freedom? Why or why not?

Does freedom mean the freedom to do whatever you want? Why or why not?

What, as Christians, does our freedom require?

Read Luke 6:27-31, Matt. 25:40-46, Gal. 5:1

Read the second MAP point. Share your faith story. What did Jesus rescue you from?
(ex. loneliness, grief, anger, etc.)

Application: As a group, how will you practically and tangibly love one another and seek the lost during this Fall Community Group session
