Filling the Pulpit

Thank you to those leading and speaking during this transition. We pray for wisdom, compassion, and encouragement in every message.

Let's also pray for unity and strength within our congregation as we wait for our new leader. Blessings to all serving and may our church remain steadfast in hope and love this July.

Ways to Serve

Communion Preparation and Hospitality

If you are interested in helping prepare the Lord's Supper and serving coffee and donuts as part of our hospitality ministry, we warmly welcome your involvement. These acts of service are wonderful ways to support our congregation and foster fellowship.
When you set out communion elements before worship and greet others with a smile as you offer refreshments, your time and energy make a meaningful difference. Please reach out to the church office or let one of our ministry leaders know if you would like to join the team. Training and support are available for anyone new to these roles, and your willingness to serve is truly appreciated.

We practice "open" communion here at First Christian Church.
Anyone who has a relationship with Jesus Christ is invited to accept His invitation to commune with him.

Sermons are available each week at FCC Facebook page and on the Church Website: sturgisfcc.org
