“God’s Person and Work”

March 3, 2019

Dr. Mark Strauss

Theme: This week we continue to examine the person of God and His work. God is both transcendent and immanent—wholly separate from human beings yet choosing to be in relationship with them. He is three persons, yet one God. He is the creator and sustainer of all things. He is both all good and all powerful. While these things can be mysterious and difficult to understand, they are powerful truths that should build our confidence in God.

Outline:

1. The Trinity: The Three-In-Oneness of God

a. Biblical evidence for the Trinity

b. Analogies for the Trinity

c. Roles of the Trinity

2. The Transcendence and Immanence of God

3. Creation and Providence

4. The Problem of Evil

5. Angels, Satan and demons

Takeaway: That God is both good and all-powerful reminds us that whatever circumstances we face, He will bring us through safely in the end and accomplish His good purposes through us.
