A close-up photograph of a dark brown branch of a cherry tree in full bloom. The branch is covered with numerous white cherry blossoms, each with five petals and a prominent yellow center. The background is a clear, bright blue sky. The text "Communion Sunday" is overlaid on the image in a white, sans-serif font, centered horizontally and partially obscured by a dark grey rectangular background.

Romans 3:21-26

But now apart from the law the righteousness of God has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. ²² This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference between Jew and Gentile, ²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴ and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. ²⁵ God presented Christ as a sacrifice of atonement, ^m through the shedding of his blood—to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished—²⁶ he did it to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.
