JESUS' PARABLES

-stories that teach-

A small, brown and white bird is perched on a dark branch, surrounded by a dense thicket of yellow flowers. The bird is facing right, and its feathers are detailed with fine lines. The background is a soft, out-of-focus mix of green and yellow, suggesting a natural, outdoor setting. The overall style is that of a watercolor or soft-focus photograph.

~Shelter~

Mark 4:30-32 (Parable of the mustard seed)

And he said, “With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use for it? 31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when sown on the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth, 32 yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants and puts out large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.”

Mark 4:30-32 (Parable of the mustard seed)

And he said, “With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use for it? 31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when sown on the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth, 32 yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants and puts out large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.”

A detailed oil painting of a small bird, possibly a sparrow or finch, perched on a dark, gnarled branch. The bird is facing right, with its head slightly turned. It has brown and grey plumage. The background is filled with numerous thin, dark branches and clusters of small, bright yellow flowers, creating a dense, textured scene. A semi-transparent dark grey rectangular box is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the text.

Where is God's Kingdom seeking to expand in your heart and life?

Prayer and Communion Sunday

Share something you are thankful for. Is there a way
God has been your shelter recently?

Praying for Duvall and the Snoqualmie Valley:

(That the Kingdom of Heaven would Grow)

- The active power of the Holy Spirit to be evident here.
- God to stir a hunger in the people for Him.
- Boldness for believers to share the Good News.
- That God would move His people to pray together for these things.

Our Shelter

Psalms 91:1–2

“Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.” NIV
