The Five Streams

Experiencing Life With God

A long-exposure photograph of a waterfall cascading over mossy rocks in a lush forest. The water is blurred, creating a sense of movement and tranquility. The surrounding vegetation is dense and green, with sunlight filtering through the trees, creating a warm, golden glow. The overall scene is peaceful and serene.

Walking with God

Restoration

A vibrant tropical landscape featuring a clear stream with a small waterfall cascading over rocks. The scene is framed by dense, lush greenery, including large trees and various colorful plants like ginger lilies with red and yellow flowers. The overall atmosphere is serene and natural.

A close-up photograph of a stream flowing over mossy rocks in a forest. The water is white and frothy as it cascades over the dark, moss-covered stones. The background is a lush green forest with various plants and trees, slightly out of focus. The overall scene is serene and natural.

Community

We need one another; made in the image of God, we were never intended to live apart from Him and others. Even God expresses Himself as one God in the community of three persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Every person longs to be truly known and to experience true connection with others. Every person is a unique and necessary part of God's church. The church is likened to a body with many parts. Each part is critical to the function of the whole. Only together can we accomplish all that God desires for us.

True Connection with Others

Acts 2:42–47

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. ⁴³ Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. ⁴⁴ All the believers were together and had everything in common. ⁴⁵ They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. ⁴⁶ Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, ⁴⁷ praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. NIV

The Body of Christ – A Connected Community

1 Corinthians 12:12–20

Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³ For we were all baptized by one Spirit so as to form one body—whether Jews or Gentiles, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. ¹⁴ Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many. ¹⁵ Now if the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that reason stop being part of the body. ¹⁶ And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that reason stop being part of the body. ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸ But in fact God has placed the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. ¹⁹ If they were all one part, where would the body be? ²⁰ As it is, there are many parts, but one body. NIV

Ephesians 1:22–23

And God placed all things under his feet and appointed him to be head over everything for the church, ²³ which is his body, the fullness of him who fills everything in every way. NIV

Ephesians 2:19–22

Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God's people and also members of his household,²⁰ built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone.²¹ In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord.²² And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit.
