The Five Streams

Experiencing Life With God

A long-exposure photograph of a forest stream. The water flows over numerous dark, moss-covered rocks, creating a soft, blurred effect. The surrounding forest is lush with green moss and ferns, and the scene is bathed in warm, golden light, likely from the sun filtering through the trees. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and serene.

Walking with God

Walking with God:

We believe that God created us for intimacy. The Bible is filled with examples for us of God personally interacting with His people. A conversational relationship with God is available here on earth. We are encouraged to both talk to God and also listen for His loving voice to affirm us, correct us and guide us in His ways. We walk with God by the guidance of His Word (the Bible) and by His Holy Spirit which He gives as a counselor and guide to every person who puts their faith in Jesus. The Bible and the Holy Spirit will never contradict each other. We believe that the result of walking with God is true intimacy with Him and a relationship that brings forth an abundant life.

Walking With God is the practice of living life in real relationship with God.

John 15:1- 4

“I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. ² He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful. ³ You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. ⁴ Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine.

Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me. NIV

John 10:1–5

“Very truly I tell you Pharisees, anyone who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber. ² The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. ³ The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴ When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵ But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger’s voice.”

NIV

John 10:14–16

“I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me—¹⁵ just as the Father knows me and I know the Father—and I lay down my life for the sheep. ¹⁶ I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd. NIV

Through God's Word

Psalm 119:105

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.” ESV

Through God's Spirit – Holy Spirit

Acts 16:6–10

And they went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. ⁷ And when they had come up to Mysia, they attempted to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them. ⁸ So, passing by Mysia, they went down to Troas. ⁹ And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of Macedonia was standing there, urging him and saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.” ¹⁰ And when Paul had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go on into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.
