HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

Isaiah 40:11

He tends his flock like a shepherd: He gathers the lambs in his arms and carries them close to his heart; he gently leads those that have young. NIV

The Five Streams

Experiencing Life With God

A long-exposure photograph of a forest stream. The water flows over numerous dark, moss-covered rocks, creating a soft, blurred effect. The surrounding forest is lush with green moss and ferns, and the lighting is warm and golden, suggesting late afternoon or early morning. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and serene.

Restoration

Restoration

We believe that Jesus came to restore us. Originally, Adam and Eve were glorious beings, unfallen image-bearers of God. The enemy of our souls led them to doubt God's heart and leadership and that sin produced shame and a desire for independence from God. Sin has affected every human since. We have a brokenness that needs to be healed at a heart level and a glory that God intends to restore, so He sent His son to heal us, set us free and give us the identity that we were meant to have through adoption as His children. Letting God restore us, ultimately brings glory to Him. As we walk with God, He will lead us into the restoration of our heart and life.

Restoration

Three Important Truths

- The heart can be broken

Isaiah 61:1–2 (NIV)

The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted,
to proclaim freedom for the captives
and release from darkness for the prisoners, ² to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor... and the day of vengeance of our God,
to comfort all who mourn, NIV

Restoration

Three Important Truths

- The heart can be broken
- Small things matter
- God is committed to your restoration
