FAMILY CHALLENGE

Have a family story time.

Take an evening, order or make something everyone loves to eat, and take one hour to tell stories that are significant in your life. Recall funny moments, or times of wonder. See if you can have everyone share one story close to their heart. Maybe share a story your kids or spouse have never heard before. Adjust this as necessary for young kiddos.

If you are the head of your home, share a story of when God became real to you.

Invite others to do the same it they like. Remember, there are no expectations for this time. We are just seeing what it would look like to invite each other into the story of our family.
