Reflection Questions:

1. What are some recent examples of how you have continued to conform your values and morals to align more closely to what you see in God's Word?
2. What were some of the earliest convictions you had as a Christian regarding how your morals and values did NOT align with what is in God's Word?
3. How can you show more grace and patience to other Christians in your life, understanding that people will vary in being convicted of certain things at different points in their walk with Christ?
4. How have you experienced God's grace and patience in your life when it feels like it took you longer to conform to His Word than it should have?
5. How can remembering God's grace and patience with your own slow-growth in Christ-likeness be helpful in how you share the Gospel with others?
